Gayle Stakes was born in Kerrville and was raised in Boerne until the 6th grade when her family moved to Houston. She returned to the San Antonio area in time to graduate from Alamo Heights High School. After graduating, Gayle studied Recreation Management at Southwest Texas State and worked for the Department of the Army as a Recreation Specialist in Killeen, Texas and Augsburg, West Germany. She returned to Boerne in 1986 to raise her two sons and to be close to her family. Gayle has been working at 820 Adler Road, across the street from her ancestral home, first as the manager when it was known as the Boerne Area Community Center. She continued in the position of Supervisor after the City of Boerne purchased the Boerne Convention and Community Center in 1997.

After graduating from Texas A&M University with a Bachelors in Business Administration, Christi Surley moved to Houston to begin her career in mortgage lending. While she learned the ins and outs of the mortgage business she also learned she did not want to continue living in Houston. Christi and husband Josh fell in love with the Herff Ranch community and closed on their first home in March 2009. Since living in the area, Christi has worked at a bank and an insurance company. Her goal was to find a job she enjoyed in Boerne and that led her to become the Office Manager of Sage Capital Mortgage. Living and working in Boerne is everything Christi hoped for.

LEADERSHIP BOERNE CLASS OF 2012 WHO'S WHO?

Jesse Brown

Jesse Brown grew up in Doddridge, Arkansas spending most of his time hunting and fishing. He graduated from Henderson State University with a Bachelors Degree in Business Administration. Jesse completed his education with a Masters of Business Administration degree. He began his insurance career selling for State Farm Insurance. When his wife received an orthodontic residence in San Antonio, Jesse moved here and worked for an investments company. After deciding he preferred insurance sales he was hired by Farm Bureau Insurance and he's been in Boerne ever since. Jesse still loves to hunt and fish in his free time. He and his wife attend Oak Hills Church where they volunteer in the church nursery. They want to be even more involved in the community and that's one reason he signed up for Leadership Boerne.

Ricky Burk, a native of Lubbock, received his B.A. in Theology from Tucson's Southwestern University in 1984, his Masters in Theology from Liberty Bible College out of Pensacola in 1987, his Course of Study School certificate from Perkins School of Theology in Dallas in 1998 along with his Doctor of Ministry in 2000. From 1975 to 1984 Ricky worked in the agricultural industry in Texas managing grain elevators and fertilizer franchises. Finally, in 1985 he responded to his calling for full-time ministry. Since then, he's served United Methodist Churches in Telferner, Nursery, Victoria, Kerrville, Lampasas and San Angelo before coming to Boerne in 2011 to serve the First United Methodist Church. Ricky's wife, Beverly, is an Associate Pastor there and together they parent five children and seven grandchildren (the eighth is due in September). Ricky is a bird watcher, a novice astronomer and a lover of all animals. He's also served as a coach for soccer, basketball and softball. Welcome to Boerne, Ricky!

Peter Cowger, a native of California, is the VP, Treasury, at Broadway Bank where he supports twelve branches for sales and support of commercial customers with cash management products. Pete graduated Magna Cum Laude from the University of California at Santa Barbara majoring in Economics with a Statistical emphasis and was elected to the Phi Beta Kappa honors society. He immediately began his banking career with Union Bank of California. It is interesting to note that he moved on to World Savings and then back to Union Bank and then back to World Savings, every time at a higher level with more responsibility, managing more people and projects. World Savings moved their operation to San Antonio in 1993. He met his wife in 1997 and they married in '98. When Wachovia bought World Savings, they asked Pete to move to Florida and he decided to stay in San Antonio. He "retired" and became certified as a Master Naturalist volunteering at Government Canyon State Preserve and the Cibolo Nature Center. He focused his attention on helping young people understand ecology at Frederick and Eisenhower parks. Although he wasn't planning to return to banking, in 2009 Pete was presented with an opportunity to do so with Broadway Bank that perfectly suited him. And the rest, as they say, is history!

Mary Jo Floyd

Mary Jo Floyd is the branch manager of the Randolph Brooks Federal Credit Union. Her recent career with RBFCU is a bit of a homecoming for her. She was employed with the credit union in the early nineties before her husband's military career took them to South Carolina. Upon returning, she made her home in Boerne and rejoined the growing credit union, opening branches in Kerrville, Bulverde Crossing and Boerne where she currently manages a staff of 13. Mary Jo is married and has two grown children and a 5 year old grandson. She currently volunteers at the Hill Country Family Services, is a member of the Noon Rotary Club and is a Chamber Ambassador.

Case Gatlin

For fifteen years, Case Gatlin has helped his clients make decisions that enhance their lifestyles, benefit their families and lead them to financial independence. Offering a wide range of investment alternatives and services, Case specializes in retirement and education planning. He joined Raymond James & Associates because “it is one of the only firms I know that provides all the resources, research and technical support of a major firm, yet still offers a non-proprietary product mix and the ability to work with and service all accounts, regardless of value.” Before joining Raymond James, Case, who earned his bachelor’s degree from Texas Tech University in 1996, was a vice president for a regional investment firm based in South Texas. In addition to holding securities licenses, he is authorized to provide annuities and life and health insurance coverages. Originally from Kerrville, Texas, he now lives in Boerne with his wife, Kerri. They have three children, Case Jr., Field and Cash. Case is also very active with several Boerne-based charities and is a Board Member for the Boerne Education Foundation and is very active with Kendall County Jr. 4-H.

David Harris, founder and owner of Riverbed Concrete, is an accomplished entrepreneur with experience in operations, management, and marketing. He’s a graduate of Texas A&M University with a BS in Agricultural Development and was a track and field scholarship athlete specializing in the Decathlon. He also was the guitarist/recording artist for Saving Dawn, a touring indie acoustic rock band. More recently, David founded and organized the Greater Boerne Coat & Blanket Drive beginning in 2009 helping those in need by collecting and donating winter clothing. He is currently the Vice President of Emerge Boerne, a group of young professionals in Boerne. You’ll want to ask him about the many great products Riverbed Concrete produces!

Rosanne Hernandez

Rosanne Hernandez is the Branch Manager for the United San Antonio Federal Credit Union in Boerne. Prior to joining the credit union, Rosanne worked in management positions at several area companies including Southwest Business Corporation, Firstmark Credit Union and H.E. B. Federal Credit Union. Rosanne has over seventeen years experience with the financial services industry. She served as Co-Chair for Credit Union for Kids to help raise money for the children at Santa Rosa Children’s Hospital and has served on the board of San Antonio Independent Living Services. She’s currently enrolled at the University of the Incarnate Word studying Organizational Development.

Matthew Johnson is the President of Dorado Builders. Growing up as a carpenter’s son in Blanco, he has had a lifelong passion for homebuilding. A graduate of Texas A&M with a degree in Agricultural Development after paying his own way by working various construction jobs, Matt moved to Boerne to work for a regional home builder as a construction superintendent. Two years later, Matt and his wife Natalie formed Dorado Builders. Despite trying times with the overall economy, Dorado Builders’ revenues have progressively grown over its five-year history as has its reputation as a premier homebuilder and remodeler in the Texas Hill Country. Matt is a devoted family man and is the father to Kaita (age 4) and Reilly (a one year old). He’s actively involved in the Boerne Church of Christ’s youth ministry and Angel Food ministry. Matt also volunteers with the Hill Country Pregnancy Care Center and has volunteered construction assistance with many other Hill Country non-profits. In his free time, Matt enjoys fishing and kayaking in the Guadalupe River!

Patti Johnson

Patti Johnson is a consultant with G&A Partners, a professional employer organization. She began working in the PEO industry in 1992. She holds a Bachelor of Interior Design from Texas Tech University. She and her husband Keith have three children, Emily 16, Luke 13, and Camden 6. The whole family is very involved in sports and their favorite team is the Houston Texans. You’ll find Patti supporting the Champion Boosters and she’s also involved with the PTOs from Champion High, Boerne Middle School North and Fabra.

Brooxie Jones is the General Manager for Kendall County Air and she is responsible for results in every department of the business. Born in Denton, Brooxie’s family moved to Boerne in 1984 where she attended Boerne schools from Kindergarten through the 9th grade. She was home schooled for her final 3 years of high school. After high school, Brooxie attended the Texas Bible Institute in Columbus and her final year there attended an “invitation-only” leadership training course. Growing up, everyone knew Brooxie dreamed about being a teacher. She says, “I am still living out my dream daily as I lead the people around me.”

Brooxie Jones

Stacey Kucera is the Office Manager at Boerne Lifetime Dental. She grew up in the Texas Hill Country, finally moving to Boerne when she married in June, 2010. She’d always enjoyed visiting Boerne whether it was passing through and stopping at the bakery, hauling horses to rodeo on a Friday night or walking Main Street on a Sunday afternoon. Now, she looks at Boerne from a different perspective: as a resident rather than a visitor. She represents her firm with the Chamber. Her company sponsors a baseball team and fields, donates to Berges Fest and the Boerne Education Foundation, and they participate in all the parades. One of the organizations Stacey volunteers to serve is Ropin’ Dreams, where she performs fundraising activities and organizes volunteers for this organization that produces dreams for terminally ill children.

Desmond Lewis

Desmond Lewis is the General Manager of one of Boerne’s newest restaurants, Dog and Pony Grill. His passion for hard work comes from his humble upbringing by a family of cotton farmers and restaurant owners. After attending Arkansas State University, Desmond returned home and worked in a steel mill for four years, working long hours and saving his money. He decided to see the world and after two years and 16 countries he discovered his real passion for food. Desmond began his restaurant career in Dallas—Fort Worth but moved to Boerne when he and his wife, Jennifer, had their daughter Ava so she could grow up near her grandparents who live in San Antonio. He says, “it was the best decision of my life!” He frequently participates in local outreach programs like the Hill Country Daily Bread Ministries and he’s also very involved at Oak Hills Church.

Cat Mandell, Manager and Loan Officer for Sage Capital, hails from Thibodaux, Louisiana, just 45 miles SE of New Orleans. She, her husband Mack, son Brock and Ava the golden retriever moved to Boerne in 2005 thanks to Hurricane Katrina. They love being here in Boerne where her business has been voted “Best of the Best Mortgage Company” for the last two years. For fun, Cat loves to play tennis, cook, and play cards with her neighbors. She is the neighborhood newsletter editor and webmaster and she’s the co-chair for “Homes4Heroes—Celebrity Golf and Gun Shootout” which will benefit Military Warriors Support Foundation in October, 2011. Cat is a graduate of the University of Louisiana.

Jon Miller is a native of Abilene and a graduate of Baylor University where he majored in Finance with a Minor in Criminal Justice and was a member of Kappa Omega Tau Fraternity. He began his career in Waco with First City Financial Corporation. Jon’s passion is related to his family history; his grandmother had Alzheimer’s disease and he remembers as a child that his family had to put her in a nursing home because there were no other alternatives to providing care for her. In June 2009 Jon moved to Boerne to start Visiting Angels in the Hill Country, the nation’s leading network of non-medical, private duty home care agencies providing senior care, elder care, personal care, respite care and companion care to help the elderly and adults continue to live in their homes. He has since opened offices in New Braunfels and Marble Falls. When he’s not playing with Jake, his golden retriever, he enjoys hunting, fishing, running, basketball and going to the lake. He’s also a member of Fair Oaks Country Club where Jon enjoys playing golf.
